HEADQUARTERS BULLETIN Designating Flags for Departments and Posts-New Aids Appointed.

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC. RUTLAND, VY.

For the purpose of securing uniformity in the colors carried by the several organizations of this MINNESOTA .-Order, upon occasions of parade or ceremony, the Commander-in-Chief suggests that all distinctive colors for use of Departments or Posts, hereafter procured, conform as nearly as possible to the fol-

For Bendquarters of Departments-A silken color, red (cherry), the same shade as the edge of the budge-ribbon worn by Department officers; the usignia thereon to be the membership budge of the Order, with the regular plain flag-ribbon and eagle, buying above the eagle two silver stars, and in git letters above the stars the words " Department of," and below the badge the name of the Department and the letters G.A.R., or the words they signify, fringe of builton or knotted yellow silk; cords and tasses of red and white silk intermixed; size of color, if a flag, about four feet six inches fly and four feet on the pike, which, including spear-head or eagle and ferrule, should be nine feet six indies long. If a banner is carried instead of a flag the size is left optional, but the color and general effect should be as above described. The post-of-arms of the State may be upon one side of

tion of the Post, and below it the name of the Designify in gilt letters; both sides of the color slike, one side instead of the badge; fringe or bullion or knotted yellow silk; cords and tassels blue and white intermixed; size of Post colors to be six feet six inches fly by six feet on the pike, which, inscluding appear head and ferrule, is to be nine feet

The regular National U. S. flag, carried by Posts, having upon the red stripes in gold letters the name, number, and location of the Post, and the and trimming to the blue flag above described; own purposes. the union, or field of blue, to be 31 judies in length and extending to the lower edge of the fourth red | MONTANA,stripe from the top. A Post may very properly carry both the blue flag and the Stars and Stripes, but if only our is selected the latter is to be pre-ferred. All colors should be provided with proper for posts will be blue in color.

For Headquarters of A.R.—The Headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic will be designated by a flag similar to that prescribed for De partments, except that the color will be buff, the signts thereon four silver stars above the budge and the words Hendquariers Grand Army of the Republic; the cont-of arms to be on one side in place of the bedge; cords and tassels of buff, red- lowed until a late hour. and the silk intermixed.

These suggestions are not intended to affect any colors now in use, but only to apply to those hereafter procured, that at future parades, eventually, the character of an organization or headquarters may be readily determined by its colors. By command of W. G. VEAREY, Commander

SIXTH OHIO DISTRICT.

DEAR TRIBUNE: The Sixth District Convention, Department of Ohio, W.R.C., assembled at G.A.R. Hall, Fostoria, O., Feb. 26, 1891. The Sixth District s composed of the Counties of Wood, Hancock, Sandusky and Senaca.

Convention was opened at 10:30 o'clock by Miranda Henry, President of Norris Corps, 96, Fostoria, who introduced Lavina Welch, of Bellyne, Assistant Instituting and Installing Officer, who took charge of the Convention. Secretaries and officers were appointed from visiting Corps. Ada F. Clarke, Department President, Canton, and Lena Robb, Department Instituting and Installing Officer, were escorted to the platform. All past and present Presidents and all Department officers were invited to seats on the piatform. Jenny Hissong, of Norris Corps, 96, Fostoria, gave the members a warm and hearty welcome, so cordial and earnest, on behalf of Corps 96, that the presiding officer called upon the President or representative of each Corps present to respond to the address of welcome. Fifteen Corps responded, each lady in her own happy manner, all expressing themselves highly gratified to be able to be present, guests of Corps 96, to meet with their superior offi-

Corps, besides 50 members of Norris Corps, three Department officers and two visitors, one each from Salem and Troy, O. After the appointment of committees and preliminary announcements, Chairman Welch introduced Department President Ada F. Clarke, who addressed the assemblage and expressed herself as greatly interested in District Conventions. She sought to impress upon the minds of all present that working in unison is ties and overlook all imperfections. Her speeches have the ring of knowledge of the work and a was impressed upon all throughout her remarks. Lena Robb, Department Instituting and Installing Officer, was introduced, and made some very to which all did full instice At the afternoon session, the ritual was exemplified by Norris Corps in a highly creditable manner. The Question Box was the source of interest and instruction, as answered by Department President, Instituting and Installing Officer, and other officers present. The Committee on Condolence, Lizzie M. Bowersox, Corps 59, Tiffin, Chairman, read appropriate resolutions, regretting the absence of Past President Augusta P. Harris, of Norris

Corps; also of Affec M. Payne, detained by illness | the cloquenes and song and story with all the old In her family; adopted by Convention. A resolution was also read in opposition to the payment of expenses of Delegates to National Convention. All adopted but the last, which was held to be a maiter for Department Convention to arijust.

A surplus of $5.25 over and above expenses was roted to the National Relief Corps Home Fund,

The greatest harmony existed throughout the day, and each lady went to her home determined to act well her part, and work with untiring zeal to aiding and comforting our aged veterans, their widows and orphans. The Campfire in the evening was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. Instrumental and vocal musie, by several of Fostoria's musicians, was well rendered. Speeches were made by Capt, Payne, of the Sons of Veteraus, Comrade Cramer, Capt. Stewart, Ada F. Ciarke, Department President, Lena Robb, Instituting and Installing Officer, and Lizzie Bowersox, Chairman Weich, in closing, said: "This is one of my red-letter days, and my first Convention." Reno Corps, Lexington, did themselves great redit in welcoming Department President Morgan apon her visit there. In the afternoon members of the W.R.C. met in their hall for instruction. Questions were asked and answers as freely given by Mrs. Morgan. In the evening the Post and Sons of Veterans were invited to unite with them in a reesption to Mr. and Mrs. Morgan. A fine supper was served, and Dr. Turton was requested to extend a welcome to the Department President. His enlogy upon woman's work was so fine that I will reproduce it. He said:

We meet here to-night to welcome among us one whose name is a household word to-day in every loyal home in Nebroska; one whose life is devoted to the cause for which these 'boys' upon my right hand fought. Neither tongue nor pen has power to depict the labor, toil and suffering that you, my comrades, endured to perpetuate that glorious ensign that floats proudly over every fort of our Nation's domain. But, my comrades, what could you have done had it not been for the work of devotion, the sacrifice, and the ministering i your behalf by the loyal women of America? may in imagination roll back the wheels of time to the chivalrie days of Rome, to the gory conflict of the Carthogeniaus, to the terrible fight at the Pass of Thermopylie, and come down through modern times, searching all history, but you will find no record of such an organization as a Woman's Relief Corps or a Sanitary Commission until you come to the record of the loyal women of our beloved American Republic, epitomized by the grandest banner that to-day floats over land or

Now, let me say, I have great pleasure in being the lustrument of this company to welcome among us the worthy President of that band of loyal hearts who to-day represent this grand State of hand in token of your hearty welcome to our loyal band, We tender to you our warm, heartfelt wishes; we recognize the work in which you are engaged as the noblest, grandest and holiest work of woman,

"May your visit among us be a source of pleas ure to you and happiness to us, and may our hearts to night be renewed with zeal for our cause, and in those trying days." > Department Gleanings. MICHIGAN, MY MICHIGAN.

DEAR TRIBUNE: I gladly send you a few lines from "my Michigan," and of our annual Conven-tion, held met week in Muskegon, the beautiful city near the waters of Lake Michigan, which was a delightful occasion for all in attendance. The generous and patriotic people of the city left nothing undone, the courtesies and hospitalities extended its guests being unlimited, and the cordiality of welcome was appreciated by all. The decora tions were handsome and unique, with the "flag of the free heart's hope and home "everywhere. Our Convention was an excellent one, well under control and the utmost harmony prevailing, with wise legislation and an election of good officers

The President's address and all officers' reports gave the resume of a prosperous year, and showed zeal and fidelity in the performance of ardnous duties. Each officer retires with the merited "well done, good and faithful servant." Department President Abbie R. ALABAMA AND TENNESSEE. The third annual Encampment of the Division will meet at Knoxville, Tenn., at 10 a.m. on the 17th day of April, 1891, and continue until the night of the 18th of April, or until all of the business has been legally transacted. The loyalty each Camp bears to the Division and the Soos of Veterans as an Order will be judged largely by the representation it sends to this Encomponent. As the matter of the separation of the States forming the present Division has not been definitely settled, it is to be hoped that all the Alabama Camps will make an extra effort to have a full delegation present at the Division Encampment. If the separation is to take place it is very desirable to have it done in such a manner as will help the Campain both States. This can best be done by a conference of the Camp representatives at the Encampment. Efforts are being made from all sides for the re-15, Sunbright, and it is highly probable that the announcement of their having been placed in good standing may be made in an early order.

There will be five of the best Camps in the Division to take part in the G.A.R. paradeat Decatur on April 8, in honor of the silver anniversary of the G.A.R.
